Let's Go Yorkshire invites you and your family to the premiere of A New Life in Huddersfield - Memories of Partition and Migration. The film documents Huddersfield's survivors and their family's stories of the Partition of India in 1947 and the subsequent migration to the UK in search for a better future in the 1950s and 60s.

The event also includes copies of records relating to Partition from The National Archives. These include records relating to both the build up to Partition and its fallout.
