Heritage Quay

Workshops for schools

Heritage Quay Workshops
are FREE and last around 3 hours, giving time for lunch and a short campus
tour led by a current University student!

Book one of our school workshops and give your students a unique insight into the University of Huddersfield's archives.

Heritage Quay Workshops

- are linked to a range of curriculum subjects from KS1-3.
- include handling original artefacts.
- foster research and historical enquiry skills.
- promote team work, presentation and communication skills.
- inspire aspirations to university and careers in history.

You can find out what's in the collections at

KS1&2

Curriculum Links: KS1 History, Art, English

🕒 0.5 day

An arts based session using archive items to enable pupils to learn more about the lives of two well known local figures - Susannah Sunderland ('Yorkshire Queen of Song') and Victor Grayson ('England's Greatest Orator'). Children take part in a story based workshop before using a range of media and arts techniques to illustrate the lives of Susannah and Victor. An ideal introduction to university for a younger age group.
